

Stave Two - B

Name _____

Choose one of the five Christmases that the Ghost of Christmas Past takes Scrooge to see:

- _____ the boarding school when he had to stay
- _____ the boarding school when he got to go home
- _____ when he was Fezziwig's apprentice
- _____ when his fiancé broke up with him
- _____ his fiancé married and with her own family

Based on details from the novel, draw and color a picture to illustrate it. At the bottom of the page, write a complete sentence that explains what is happening in the scene.

What did Scrooge learn about himself from watching this Christmas? :

---

---

Fezziwig was:

- a. Scrooge's nephew
- b. Scrooge's old boss
- c. Scrooge's dad

The ghost of Christmas Past took Scrooge to a childhood Christmas Eve when:

- a. he sat around the Christmas tree opening gifts with his family
- b. his younger sister came to school to take him home for Christmas
- c. he sat alone in an empty school room with only a cruel teacher to spend Christmas with

Why did Scrooge want to return home when he saw his girlfriend breaking up with him?

- a. he didn't want to see his mistake because it was too painful
- b. he never really cared for her to begin with
- c. he was really cold and tired

What is the mood of the following passage:

"Light flashed up in the room upon the instant, and the curtains of his bed were drawn aside, I tell you, by a hand."

- a. gloomy
- b. frightening
- c. humorous
- d. inspirational

Where was the first place the Ghost of Christmas Past took Scrooge?

- a. his hometown where he was at boarding school
- b. a joyous Christmas party with good food and dancing
- c. a young Scrooge talking with his sister

The Ghost Of Christmas Past:

- a. had a bright jet of light springing from the crown of its head
- b. carried a large, open book in its right hand
- c. had the face of a mournful child that stared at Scrooge with empty eyes
- d. all of the above

Scrooge's sister:

- a. turned against him
- b. died as a young girl
- c. was the mother of his nephew

How did Scrooge react to seeing himself as a child?

- a. he was excited and happy
- b. he cried
- c. he wanted to go back home

When seeing the room full of children, what did Scrooge wish?

- a. that he had a child
- b. that he had never been born
- c. that the ghost would take him home

What did Scrooge say he wished he had done when a boy was singing at his door earlier that day?

- a. chased him away
- b. given him something
- c. praised his singing ability

Who did Belle's husband say that he saw sitting alone?

- a. Tiny Tim
- b. Jacob Marley
- c. Mr. Scrooge

When the ghost took Scrooge to the warehouse to see old Fezziwig, they witnessed:

- a. the employees working hard on Christmas Eve
- b. a young Scrooge talking with his sister
- c. a joyous Christmas party with good food and dancing

The "idol" that Belle says she was replaced in Scrooge's heart with was really:

- a. money
- b. his job
- c. another girl

What did Scrooge learn from The Ghost of Christmas Past?

- a. What he was missing out on in life.
- b. He will die old and lonely if he doesn't change.
- c. How much he used to enjoy life and being around people.
- d. all of the above

No matter how rude Scrooge behaves towards his nephew, Fred continues to be kind to him. After seeing Scrooge's past, the reader can infer he behaves this way because:

- a. Fred wants to kill him with kindness
- b. Fred knows how much his mother loved her brother (Scrooge) and he wants to honor that now that she is gone.
- c. Fred promised his wife he'd always be kind to Scrooge
- d. Fred realizes that he is Scrooge's long lost son

